

FROM OUR MASTERWORK SERIES AT CARNEGIE HALL

JOHN RUTTER REQUIEM

Experience our celebrated Masterwork Series where qualified ensembles can collaborate on major choral works alongside a renowned guest conductor, the New York City Chamber Orchestra, and professional soloists, offering an immersive deep dive into major works with full orchestrations and comprehensive rehearsal schedules, perfect for maximizing your New York City experience. The Masterwork Series is ideal for choirs eager to showcase their talent and passion on a grand stage.

Deanna Joseph
GUEST CONDUCTOR

Dr. Deanna Joseph is Professor of Music and Director of Choral Activities at the Georgia State University School of Music where she conducts the University Singers and leads the master's program in choral conducting. A recent review of her work states, "[t]he choir sings with great musicality, excellent intonation, clear diction, and a healthy and beautiful pallet of tone colors..." (The Choral Scholar). Under Dr. Joseph's direction, the Georgia State University Singers have been invited to perform at two national conferences of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA), in 2021 and in 2025, and perform regularly at ACDA regional and Georgia Music Educators Association state conferences.

Prior to her appointment at Georgia State University, Dr. Joseph served on the faculties at Smith College, the University of Massachusetts at Amherst and Hobart and William Smith Colleges.

Dr. Joseph holds conducting degrees from the Eastman School of Music, where she was awarded the Walter Hagen Conducting Prize. She is the founder and artistic director of the Atlanta Summer Conducting Institute (ASCI), a weeklong, summer conducting master class that draws conductors from across the country.
